From the Staff:

Another month gone and we are in the beautiful month of May. We hope everyone had a Blessed Easter and fun with your children and family. Thank you St, John's Military School for hosting a tremendous egg hunt and treats! The children had a ball!

We are gearing up for our annual rummage sale June 15th and 16th!. Help us by cleaning out your garages, basements, and storage areas and bring all that extra "don't know what to do with items" to the Daycare. Please let all your family , friends, neighbors, and anyone else to bring over any items to donate and also to come visit us at the sale!!! Let's make this a record breaking year!!!

Wishing our Mothers a very Happy Mothers Day!.

Till next time "We wish you well"!

Dear Parents,

Hello May!!! Things are underway with improving our playground.

A special thanks to all that have helped out through this whole process.

Our caterpillars have arrived! We are looking for the middle of May to turn our butterflies loose.

Our new students are Nathan Frees and Lawrence Underwood.

We welcome them with open arms and wish them good times.

Graduation is set for Thursday May 24th at 3:00 PM.

Congratulations to the following graduates.

We are so proud of

Briaysha Jefferson, Alexander Hutton,

Brian Bonnecanere and Logan Hammersmith.

Swim days are Tuesday afternoons. Please bring swimsuits and towel for your little swimmers.

If you have yet to bring sunscreen and bug spray please do so.

Miss Sarah will be helping out our class for the next month.

Miss Shannon is now the proud grandma of Lea Roxanne Cooper Cox born May 4th at 5:31 am weighing 9lbs 3oz and 20" long

We are starting a collection to adopt a pet on Earth Day 2013. Whatever pet we adopt will be our room mascot!

Happy May to All

April 2012

Miss Shannon, Miss Sarah, & Miss Janelle

This story can fit 150-200 words.

One benefit of using your newsletter as a promotional tool is that you can reuse content from other marketing materials, such as press releases, market studies, and reports.

While your main goal of distributing a newsletter might be to sell your product or service, the key to a successful newsletter is making it useful to your readers.

A great way to add useful content to your newsletter is to develop and write your own articles, or include a calendar of upcoming events or a special offer that promotes a new product.

You can also research articles or find “filler” articles by accessing the World Wide Web. You can write about a

Inside Story Headline

This story can fit 100-150 words.

The subject matter that appears in newsletters is virtually endless.

You can include stories that focus on current technologies or innovations in your field.

You may also want to note business or economic trends, or make predictions for your customers or clients.

If the newsletter is distributed internally, you might comment upon new procedures or improvements to the business. Sales figures or earnings will show how your business is growing.

Some newsletters include a column that is updated every issue, for instance, an advice column, a book review, a letter from the presi-

This would be a good place to insert a short paragraph about your organization. It might include the purpose of the organization, its mission, founding date, and a brief history. You could also include a brief list of the types of products, services, or programs your organization offers, the geographic area covered (for example, western U.S. or European markets), and a profile of the types of customers or members served.

It would also be useful to include a contact name for readers who want more information about the

This story can fit 175-225 words.

If your newsletter is folded and mailed, this story will appear on the back. So, it's a good idea to make it easy to read at a glance.

A question and answer session is a good way to quickly capture the attention of readers. You can either compile questions that you've received since the last edition or you can summarize some generic questions that are frequently asked about your organization.

A listing of names and titles of managers in your organization is a good way to give your newsletter a personal touch. If your organization is small, you may want to list the names of all employees.

If you have any prices of standard products or services, you can include a listing of those here. You may want to refer your readers to any other forms of communication that you've created for your organization.
